 Joe Biden's Robinette Lineage 5th and 6th Generation Ancestors were Slave Owners

4th & 5th Generation Documentation: US Federal Census, 1860, Taylor, West Virginia, USA –
 George D Robinett in the Family of Moses J and Jane E Robinett. (Footnote 20)

The 1860 Census of Taylor County, Virginia shows Moses J. Robinette, Hotel Keeper, with his family that includes his wife Jane E and children including George D. Robinette, age 15. George's Initial "D" is incorrect and should be "H" as shown in 1870 Census. It is resolved as "H" in 1850 Census for the Moses J and Jane E Robinett Family because of listed children and Moses is an Inn Keeper. This record links 4th and 5th Generations together.

NOTE: This comes from a secondary source index. It was Moses J. Robinette that married Jane Elizabeth Pomphrey – not Moses G. Robinette. Moses G. Robinette was much older than Moses J. Robinette. Unfortunately, the Family History Library is closed and looking at the original record (microfilmed version) is impossible right now. Other records were used to identify the marriage.

5th Generation Discussion on the different Moses Robinette

We have seen several different things on the Internet mixing Moses Robinette men together. There are four Moses (listed as #1- #4) listed in the 1840 Census Records in Maryland who we studied to correctly identify and document Generation 5, Moses Johnson Robinette (#1). In addition to being found in the 1840 Census, this Moses (#1) was listed at various times in the records as Moses Johnson/ Moses

J/Mossie Robinett/Robinette, Inn Keeper/Hotel Keeper/Farmer, who was born in 1819 in Allegany County, Maryland and later lived with wife, Jane E and their family in Preston and Taylor Counties, Virginia, that became West Virginia during the Civil War. We were able to find him in multiple census records in Allegany County, Maryland as well as in his children's birth and death records in Virginia and West Virginia that have been presented previously.

To make the right Moses determination we studied the four Moses mentioned in the 1840 Census. This will be discussed below but first we will eliminate a possible fifth Moses (#5) who we found with his family on two pages of the Allegany County, Maryland 1850 Census, who also had a son George, just like Generation 5 Moses Johnson/Moses J Robinette (#1). We did not do research to determine if this fifth Moses (#5) was one of the other three Moses listed in the 1840 Maryland Census.

This #5 Moses Robinette was living in Allegany County, Maryland in 1850 while Generation 5 Moses J Robinette (#1) lived in Preston County, Virginia. Both had sons named George, but the one living in Allegany County, Maryland in 1850, his son George is too old to be the Generation 4 George Hamilton Robinette who was much younger and living with his parents in Preston County, Virginia in 1850. See the two pages of the Allegany County, Maryland 1850 Census presented below:

Moses Robinette of Allegany Co, Maryland in 1850 had a son named George, (shown at the bottom here on the first page of this 2-page census). This George is 18 and older than Generation 3 George H. Robinette born in 1844. This #5 Moses, therefore, is not 5th Generation Moses J Robinette (#1).

5th Generation Discussion on the 4 Moses Robinette in the 1840 Census

In order to keep the four different 1840 Moses Robinette men separated from each other, we have found and studied them in the following 1840 census records.

5th Generation Documentation: US Federal Census, 1840, Allegany County, Maryland, USA – #1 Moses J Robinett. (Footnote 33)

We found (#1 Moses) Generation 5 Moses J. Robinett on the 1840 Census of Allegany County, Maryland. He was married with no children yet in 1840 but he was not there in 1850. We know from previously reported 1850 census research that he lived by that time in Preston County, Virginia with wife Jane E and 4th Generation George H. By 1860, they lived in Taylor County, Virginia.

Note: The Joseph Robinette Biden, Jr. Ancestry Generation 5 Moses Johnson Robinette is listed above in 1840 Census Allegany County, Maryland, with the letter "J" distinguishing him from the other three Moses Robinette of Allegany County, MD. Below are the three other Moses Robinette that lived in Allegany County, Maryland in 1840.
