

phaned children. It is one of the Benevolent Causes of the church, with the Men's Bible Class playing Santa Claus to it each year. J. A. Hanna, Elder Emeritus, is Secretary of Benevolences, and it is his pride and joy to secure the largest possible fund each year to carry on the unselfish work of the church.

One of Central's real children was the Badgett Mission School, located several miles from the city. It was organized by members of the Fred Pattee Men's Bible Class, with Chas. Crook as superintendent and E. W. Hosack and J. D. Spragins serving as teachers.

CENTRAL'S HONOR ROLL

For the third time in half a century the young men of Central have marched off to war. Each Conflict of Nations has brought a lengthening of the church's Honor Roll. And now, instead of the serenity that comes with mellowing years, her hours are filled with anxiety for the thirty-some sons in uniform—an Honor Roll almost as large as the original Membership Roll.
