

BAPTISMAL SERVICE TONIGHT at the close of the worship service.

STUDY COURSE FOR EVERY CHURCH MEMBER Monday through Friday of this week. The class will begin at 7:30 each night. Mrs. Hughes will teach the class with the assistance of the Pastor. Diplomas will be awarded all who finish this course at a public worship service. Each member owes it to himself to come and find out what Training Union is all about. "Information is the basis of inspiration."

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION OF NORFOLK is promoting a Better Sunday School Clinic the week of October 27-31, at the First Baptist Church with all Baptist churches of the city cooperating. Plans were completed last Friday night at a supper meeting at the Central Baptist church of all pastors and superintendents. Dr. J.B. Hill of Richmond was the guest speaker. Our S.S. leaders from Nashville will be here to instruct in the various departments. Every S.S. teacher, officer, and member from our church should make plans to attend.

OCTOBER 5 - TITHERS' ENLISTMENT DAY. All Southern Baptists will have opportunity to give evidence of their loyalty to God by pledging the tithe during October, November, and December. Here we plan to place all above actual expenses in our building fund. Let us determine to take God at his Word, and pledge to fulfill our part of the promise he makes in Malachi 3:10.

LAST THURSDAY night the Fidelis Class met for supper and regular business meeting at the church. Each member told how she earned her contribution for the tower music system. $75. was contributed by the class.

At the Y.W.A. meeting last Tuesday Mrs. Hughes related some experiences as the daughter of missionaries to the blanket Indians of Oklahoma.
