

Speaker at DNC is a convicted killer who used pliers to squeeze victim's testicles

WASHINGTON, D.C— Recently, Democratic Presidential candidate Joe Biden selected Senator Kamala Harris (D-CA) as his running mate. Since the moment it was announced, people from all sides have attacked Harris for her history on crime as the California Attorney General.

Since then, the Democrats have tried to showcase their leniency and forgiveness for crime, however, at the DNC, they chose to showcase quite the criminal to advertise.

At the Democrat National Convention (DNC) this week, Donna Hylton, a 55-year-old Jamaican-American, who is a convicted murderer and kidnapper, was featured as a “criminal justice reform advocate.”

Hylton, a 55-year-old Jamaican-American who reportedly was abused and molested as a child, was imprisoned for her role in a horrific 1985 torture and killing of a man in New York.

Given her history, Democrats thought it was a good idea to give her a short slot in a DNC video montage, where supporters of Democrat presidential candidate Joe Biden recited the Preamble of the Constitution.

Hylton, along with six other people, participated in the brutal kidnapping, torture, and murder of New York real estate broker Thomas Vigliarolo, who was 62-years-old, in 1985. She was sentenced to 25 years to life in prison.

According to The New York Times, in 1985, Hylton and six others had kidnapped Vigliarolo and held him for a $435,000 ransom for about two weeks, before murdering him. His body was found locked inside a trunk in an apartment in Manhattan.

In 2018, The Washington Post reported on the case, noting Hylton's links to the Women's March:

“In 1985, a Long Island real estate broker, Thomas Vigliarolo, was brutally killed. Seven people were arrested on charges of kidnapping and second-degree murder. One was Donna Hylton, 20, who was sentenced to 25 years to life for her participation in the crime, during which the 62-year-old victim was starved, burned and beaten over the course of more than two weeks. His body was later put in a footlocker to decompose.”

@DNCWarRoom THIS is why the LEFT has LOST. They are completely BLIND to their OWN stupidity

Donna Hylton was once convicted of kidnapping, rape, torture and murder and then sentenced to 25 years to life.

This week, she was given a speaking role at the Democratic Nat. Convention.

Psychology Today released many details of the crime in a July 1995 report. They stated that during the group's torture of Vigliarolo, they squeezed his testicles with pliers, shoved a metal rod into his anus, and would beat him periodically.

The report reads in part:

"Vigliarole believed the three girls were prostitutes who were going to have sex with him. Instead, they picked him up on March 8 in Elmhurst, Queens, at Maria's home, and drugged him to make him drowsy.

Then they drove him to Selma's apartment in Harlem. The apartment had already been prepared for an extended torture session: The closet door had been cut, a pot put in it for use as a toilet, the windows boarded.

"For the next 15 to 20 days (police aren't sure just when Vigliarole died), the man was starved, burned, beaten, and tortured.

(Even 10 years later, Spurling could recall Rita's chilling response when they questioned her about shoving a three-foot metal bar up Vigliarole's rear: "He was a homo anyway." How did she know? "When I stuck the bar up his rectum he wiggled.")

"[New York City Detective William] Spurling himself interviewed Donna: "I couldn't believe this girl who was so intelligent and nice-looking could be so unemotional about what she was telling me she and her friends had done.

They'd squeezed the victim's testicles with a pair of pliers, beat him, burned him. Actually, I thought the judge's sentence was lenient. Once a jailbird, always a jailbird."

This is a person that the Democrats thought deserved a spot in the Presidential Candidates video, reciting our nation's Constitution. This is not all that surprising however, considering Harris was not completely opposed to Senator Bernie Sanders plan to provide voting rights to sitting inmates, including violent murderers, rapists, sex offenders, and terrorists.

CNN's Don Lemon asked Harris at a town hall event:

"People who are in — convicted, in prison, like the Boston Marathon bomber, on death row, people who are convicted of sexual assault, they should be able to vote,"

Harris responded:

"I think we should have that conversation."
