WINNIE DAVIS CHAPTER MEETS

The Winnie Davis Chapter of the Children of the Confederacy held its April meeting in the home of Mrs. J. E. Dupont, Tuesday afternoon. The historical study for the year is "The Confederate Navy" and at this meeting the life of Lieutenant Charles Read of Mississippi was studied. It was noted that the family of Lieutenant Read resided in Gulfport at one time. A poem, The Old Boatman, was read by Mary Evelyn Clark, and the singing of Dixie and other Southern songs concluded the program. At the business session it was decided to have the first Tuesday of each month as the regular meeting day. Members were also urged to fill out their applications, and return them to Mrs. Bailey as soon as possible. Following the meeting Mrs. Dupont invited the boys and girls into her garden where sandwiches, tea, and toasted marshmallows were served around the open fire place. Those present at the meeting were Mary Evelyn Clark, Bessie Clark, Elizabeth Shaw, Evelyn Hamilton, Doris Smith, Ellen Virginia

Bailey, George Thomas Bailey, Sonny
Boy Clark and Mrs. Stanley Bailey, director. Visitors present were Mrs.
J. E. Dupont, Mrs. Lee Clark and
Mrs. E. M. Napier.
